"PAY AS YOU GO."

The above is a very good religion. It scatters sunshine and happiness about as much so as to go "a-slumming"—reclaiming the "erring" and putting wings on the "fallen."

These wings don't stay on—that's the trouble.

Everybody can, if they'll make up their minds to do so, pay as they go, and especially little debts.

The prompt payment for the weekly wash means a great deal to the woman who bends over the tub or the ironing board all the week long, and, perhaps, the withholding of the same means for her real suffering.

If the work is done well praise her efforts and she will do better the next week and will feel happy.

The man or the woman shows his true nature in the treatment of inferiors.

When the woman who spends the day over the sewing machine finally takes the finished garment home to you, if the work is done well, she should be paid promptly, without any insulting remarks or superiority of manners.

"The laborer is worthy of his hire!"

The motto, "Pay as you go," lubricates the wheels of trade, gives tone to the social system as pronounced as the smell of roses, and turns loose "good will" with as sweet music as an old time hymn at a revival meeting.

Clearwater.

The Ocala baseball team left Tuesday afternoon over the Plant System for Clearwater, and our nine crossed bats with the Clearwater team Wednesday afternoon.

The party was made up of the following persons:

Mr. W. H. Clark and family, R. E. Yonge, Alice Yonge, Rossie Yonge, R. A. Stiekney and wife, Dr. Izlar, C. E. Ball, Mr. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. H. A. Ford, Miss Emily Stotesbury, Miss Emily Ford, Miss Meta Jewett, E. P. Thagard, Hugh Haley, Mrs. R. B. McConnell, Mrs. Mason, W. E. Finch, Allie Van Juhau, Mrs. B. H. Seymour, Mrs. Engleby and children, Ed. Bennett, Miss Ethel Robinson, Fred Vogt, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Standley and children, John Dunn and Charlie Miller, Clifford Anderson, H. B. Clark, G. A. Nash, Tex Martin, Mrs. T. D. Lancaster and children who will remain for a month. Howard Clark, Miss Fannie Clark, Sanford Jewett, Buford Leitner, Charlotte Leitner, Mrs. F. E. Harris, Master Frank Harris, Tom H. Harris, Miss Sara E. Harris, Moses Liddell, Bert Mathews, Stephen Jewett, W. C. Jeffords and wife, Duke Cato, R. B. Love, G. W. Hunter, P. B. Dukes, Will Stevens, Mrs. Ed. Vaughn and daughter, Frank Gale and sister, J. H. Taylor, Miss Lou Gamsby, Miss Maggie Taylor, Miss Sue Barco, Mrs. R. L. Anderson, Misses Mary and Rebecca Anderson, J. G. Sperlin, Charlie Brian, Dell Moody, Chester Finch.

The ball game was witnessed by the whole population of Clearwater and adjoining places.

With Ocala's large delegation of fair, feminine "rooters," who were there with waving flags and inspiring huzzas, it is no surprise to the people here that the score stood thirteen to

How People Lose Their Money.

By loaning it to neighbors and friends; by concealing it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jugs and jars; by sewing it up in skirts and ticks; by tucking it under couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers. These are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes THEIR LIVES.

three in favor of the Brick City's.

Clearwater is one of the prettiest places on the gulf coast. Its waters are as beautiful as a burnished mirror, and the homes of its winter visitors and permanent residents are among the most attractive in the state.

The hospitable people did everything to make the stay of the visitors pleasant, giving them a boat ride, surf bathing, a dance and a drive over the beautiful Belleair hotel grounds and near-by orange groves and pineries.

The trip was enjoyed by every one of the visitors.

Off for Europe.

Mrs. Richard McConathy left last Tuesday for a tour of Europe, and will be gone several months.

She will be met in New York by her sister, Mrs. Snyder, from Sacramento, Cal., and her niece, Miss Marie Smith, from Louisville, Ky.

The ladies will first visit London and attend the Ecumenical Council, which meets there early in September.

From London they will go to Paris and other principal points on the continent.

Mrs. Snyder and Miss Smith will perhaps extend their trip for a year or more.

Sacrifice Shoe Sale

After taking an inventory of our large stock of goods, we find that the profits on Shoes fall far below those of other lines, so we have decided to close out our entire stock of Ladies', Gents' and Children's Shoes, regardless of cost. We have a large line to select from, and if we have the style and size you want, the price we guarantee will suit you. This is no catch-penny sale to get rid of old stock, but a genuine closing out. We mean business, and to convince yourself of the fact, come to see us. We are bound to close out our Shoe Department, so govern yourself accordingly. School will soon open. "A word to the wise," etc.

THE BOSTON STORE

Our buyer is now on an extended purchasing tour in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, and we propose to carry even a larger stock of Ladies' and Gents' Ready Made Clothing this season than last, and will, as in the past, sell on close margins of profit. The store space now devoted to shoes will be filled with a full line of Gents' Furnishings, and our buyer is giving this line especially close attention during his stay in the eastern markets. It will pay you to wait on this line and thoroughly inspect it before purchasing your fall apparel. Last season we had an unusually heavy line of Dress Goods—but small compared to the coming one. See?
